

Prayer of GRATITUDE

Divine Creator, Source of our Being
I honor your Presence in me
I AM ONE with you
And all of your creations

I am so grateful to be in this world at this time
To have the opportunity to channel Universal Love and Light
To serve this planet in her evolution
To be able to play in joyful ways on Earth
I am grateful for relationships in my life that assist to heal, grow, share, and love

I am so grateful to be here today
I commit to live consciously today and to seek ways to share my gifts
I take my power back from all I have given it to and judged against myself
I ask that nothing less than Universal Christ Consciousness be communicated to me and through me this day

I AM THAT I AM
